

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 08-840 C
(Filed July 10, 2009)

KAREN MCBRIEN,) Plaintiff,) v.)
THE UNITED STATES,) Defendant.)

ORDER

By Order dated June 12, 2009, after full briefing by the parties, defendant's Motions to Dismiss were granted and plaintiff's Complaint, as amended, was dismissed.

On June 30, 2009, plaintiff filed a Motion to Reconsider the June 12, 2009 Order. The motion indicates that plaintiff did not have an opportunity to see the June 12, 2009 Order. This dismissal order was transmitted via FedEx, to plaintiff at her listed address, 3616 Far West Blvd., No. 117-252, Austin, TX, 78731. The FedEx records show the receipt of the Order at this address on June 15, 2009 at 9:35 a.m. The Order is also on the court's publically available website, <http://www.uscfc.uscourts.gov/>.

A careful review of plaintiff's June 30, 2009 motion does not disclose any viable basis for reconsideration of the June 12, 2009 Order. No matter within this court's jurisdiction was pleaded in plaintiff's prior submissions and the same is true for the Motion for Reconsideration.

In this circumstance, it is ORDERED that plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration, filed June 30, 2009, is DENIED.

James F. Merow
Senior Judge